

PEACE OUTside Campus, the Lindsey M. Bonistall Foundation

Board of Directors

Mark Bonistall – Chair: Mark is Lindsey’s dad and co-founder of the Foundation. Mark is a seasoned team leader with over 25 years of experience in all phases of national sales, relationship building, negotiations and training and has been a Senior National Account Executive for Republic Services National Accounts since 2008. Mark has been the recipient of numerous awards including the Businessman of the Year – New York by the National Republican Congressional Committee in 2006. As Chair of the Board of PEACE OUTside Campus, Mark was responsible for authoring the Certified Off Campus Housing Program standards and for advocating with other national organizations for a coordinated approach to addressing crime in college communities. Mark lives in White Plains with his wife, Kathleen.

Kathleen Cooney Bonistall – Vice Chair: Co-founder of the Foundation, Lindsey’s mom and applicant for the Roslyn S. Jaffe Award. Kathleen holds a Masters Degree in Art Therapy and Communication from the College of New Rochelle. She is an experienced grief counselor at the Hospice Program at Hackensack University Medical Center and is currently employed by the Mental Health Association of Westchester in White Plains, NY providing vocational services to individuals with severe mental disabilities. Kathleen oversees the day to day operation of the Foundation. She resides in White Plains, NY with her husband, Mark.

Jim Fennell – Treasurer: Jim has an MBA from Penn State University with a concentration in management and corporate strategy. A marketing executive with broad experience in program development, print production and execution, he is currently the managing partner of ImpressionsDP, a tactical marketing agency. Jim has been a member of the Board of Directors since 2008 as the Director of Marketing, developing the organization’s first communications plan and subsequently spearheaded an update of the Foundation’s brand. He joined the Executive Committee as Treasurer in 2014. He resides in White Plains with his wife, Laura and they are the parents of five children.

Barbara McMurray – Secretary – Barbara has a Master’s Degree in Social Work from Fordham University and a certificate in Executive Management from the Columbia University Institute for Non Profit Management. After a career in direct social work services and administration at Cardinal McCloskey Services, upon her retirement she volunteered at the Foundation as a member of the Lindsey Run Planning Committee and joined the Board of Directors as the Director of Strategic Planning in 2011. Barbara oversaw the development of the organizations first strategic plan in 2013 and was asked to assume the responsibilities of secretary and join the Executive Committee in 2016. She resides in Hartsdale, NY.

Ron Belmont – Director – Ron has a MS from the City University of New York with a concentration in Recreation and Parks. Ron had a 36 year career in the Department of Recreation of the town of Harrison, NY, serving as the Superintendent of Recreation from 1985 to 2010. He has been the Supervisor/Mayor of the Town/Village of Harrison since 2012. Ron is also the Founding President for the Harrison Volunteer Ambulance Corps, has served as a panelist on the Westchester County Business Council and volunteers for many community organizations. He brings a wealth of community experience to his role as a Director on the POC Board of Directors.

Sheila G. Cooney – Treasurer Emeritus - Sheila is Lindsey's grandmother and a member of the Board of Directors since the incorporation of the Foundation in 2005. She has many years of experience as an office administrator, educator and dance instructor and has made outstanding contributions to her parish and community. As treasurer of the Board from 2005 through 2014, she has played a vital role in fundraising efforts to enable the programs and mission of the Foundation to grow and develop. Sheila lives in White Plains and is thoroughly enjoying her grandchildren and six great grandchildren while continuing to impart her wisdom and experience to today's Board.

Althea R. Fusco – Director - Althea holds a degree in Education from Pace University and was a global studies teacher at the Academy of Our Lady of Good Counsel for 24 years and chair of the History Department from 2005 to 2015. She was recognized as a Wall of Fame recipient in 2009 and was given the Compassionate Service Award at GCA's final graduation in 2015 for 24 years of service and dedication. She has been a member of the Board of Directors since 2014 and has been an active member of the planning committees for all POC events. As an experienced educator an advocate for youth, Althea brings to the Board of Directors a unique ability to contribute to the training of our interns and the continuing improvement of our presentations to high school students. Althea has also been involved in the delivery of the Identify the Risk presentation. Althea lives in White Plains with her husband, Frank, has four children and is loving being the grandmother to five.

Lauren Galasso- Director - A member of the Board of Directors since 2013, Lauren is graduate of Binghamton University where she was the Founder and President of a PEACE OUTside Campus chapter which spread the message of safety to the university population. She was responsible for networking with other campus organizations, including the campus police and initiating activities such as a 5 K run, self defense classes and other awareness building events. Lauren has effectively brought the voice of students to the Board of Directors. She lives in Port Chester and is an Account Executive at a consumer health and wellness advertising agency.

Nancy Krzemienski – Director – Nancy has an MBA in Organizational Development from Long Island University and serves as Senior Vice President of Human Resources at the Mental Health

Association of Westchester. A member of the Board of Directors since 2014, Nancy brings a wealth of experience to inform the personnel policies and procedures of the organization. Prior to joining the Board, Nancy was an active participant in event planning committees and continues to share her expertise in these areas. She resides in White Plains with her family.

Kristen Bonistall Link – Director – Kristen is Lindsey’s sister and has played a critical role in the development of the Foundation. Kristen holds an MS in Psychoanalytic Developmental Psychology from the University College London and an MSW from Fordham University with a concentration in clinical social work and has developed systems for ensuring appropriate quality management systems for Foundation programs. She has been employed by the Burke Rehabilitation Center and is currently the Director of Family Education for the Alzheimer’s Association, Hudson Valley Chapter. She is the recipient of the NASW Whitney M. Young Award for Social Action and Change in 2010. She lives in Valhalla with her husband and two daughters.

Mary Broderick Ryan – Director - Mary has an MBA from Pace University, MS from Fordham University and is certified as a Senior Professional in Human Resources. Mary had a 26 year career with Verizon in labor relations and international human resources and is now enjoying her second career as a substitute teacher in White Plains. A member of the Board of Directors since 2006, Mary has been involved in every facet of the organization, most notably the development of Teens ‘N Transition and Identify the Risk and the development of a training curriculum for interns. Mary and her husband Stephen have four children and live in White Plains.